  3. From the Director of School Education, Lr. R.C. No. 18680/PD-189 dt. 16.3.1989.

ORDER:

In the New Education Policy, among other things, a District Level Educational Institution called the District Institute of Education and Training has been conceived to improve and enrich the academic equipment of the Elementary School Teachers, Non-Formal and Adult Educational Functionaries and other personnel at the lowest but important level of our educational system. The Government in the order first read above constituted a Task Force for making an assessment of the number of institutions of this nature required in the State keeping in view the various programme of action. Accordingly, the Task Force met twice and suggested that the existing 13 Government Teacher Training Institutes may be upgraded as District Institutes of Education and Training. The Task Force also suggested that in order to provide adequate coverage of all the Districts in this State new District Institutes of Education and Training may be established in seven Districts where no Government Teacher Training Institutes exist now. The Scheme was also later discussed by the State Level Empowered Committee constituted by the Government. Based on the project report submitted by the Government, the Government of India approved the establishment of seven District Institutes of Education under Phase-I. Orders for the establishment of the District Institutes of Education and Training under Phase-I have been issued, in G.O.Ms.No.1085, Education dt.16.6.88. A project Report was prepared as per the Guidelines prescribed by the Government of India for setting up of seven more District Institutes of Education and Training in Tamil Nadu under Phase-II and was forwarded to the Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Department of Education for approval and for release of funds.

2. Based on the decision of the State Level Empowered Committee the Government of India in their letter read above have conveyed their approval to the upgradation, on project basis, of the following Government Teacher Training Institutes as
